

“we consistently provide our clients with effective, unique and relevant legal solutions.”

Brian W. Skalsky

p 818.858.1120 d 818.858.1125
skalsky@nicolsonlawgroup.com

Brian Skalsky is an experienced civil litigator who is proficient in all stages of litigation from case inception through trial. Mr. Skalsky's practice areas include premises liability, catastrophic personal injury, products liability, toxic torts, contracts, landlord tenant, municipal liability, unlawful detainer, real property, personal property, motor vehicle, insurance defense, homeowner's association, construction defect, and corporate business disputes. Mr. Skalsky has experience representing both companies and individuals in civil lawsuits and tailors his practice to meet the individual needs of his clients.

Mr. Skalsky graduated from Loyola Law School in 2011. While in Law School Mr. Skalsky served as a Community Services Commissioner for the City of Mission Viejo and served as Chairperson of the commission in 2009.

Mr. Skalsky received his Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of California, Irvine. Prior to his career in law, Mr. Skalsky worked with Skalsky and Associates providing litigation consulting services for toxic tort cases involving mold, lead, and asbestos.

Mr. Skalsky is a member of the State Bar of California and is admitted to practice before all California State Courts and before the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

Mr. Skalsky was recognized as a Rising Star in California Super Lawyers® list in the area of business litigation, a distinction that recognizes top California lawyers in practice.

Relevant Experience

- Defended corporate client in subrogation action brought to recover money paid after a building fire from alleged product defects in bathroom ceiling fan components.
- Representation of commercial transportation carriers in catastrophic personal injury litigations.
- Representation of construction companies in catastrophic personal injury litigation.
- Representation of individual insureds in automobile actions.
- Representation of trucking company for excess insurance carrier in auto accident involving severely injured plaintiffs.

Membership

NAMWOLF (National Association of Minority and Women Owned Law Firms)

Los Angeles County Bar Association and the American Bar Association

Admissions

California and U.S. District Court
Central District of California

- Representation of property management companies and property owners in landlord tenant disputes involving complaints of habitation.
- Preparation of general business contracts for corporate and individual clients.

Representative Matters

- Obtained a favorable arbitration award for a property management company in a sexual harassment/ wage and hour dispute. Plaintiff's final demand prior to arbitration was $750,000. The arbitrator awarded Plaintiff under $4,000 at arbitration and found there was no evidence of any sexual harassment. After arbitration, Plaintiff sought recovery of $160,000 in attorneys' fees, which was reduced by the arbitrator to $25,000.
- Obtained a summary judgment dismissal based on the Privette Doctrine for a construction company who was building an industrial water cooling tower and was sued by a subcontractor's employee that was injured when falling from a ladder.
- Obtained a summary adjudication dismissal of a cause of action for a loss of lateral and subjacent support and negligence per se for a general contractor client that was constructing a large retaining wall in the Hollywood Hills, in Los Angeles.
- Obtained a favorable resolution for a client in a homeowners association matter involving election rules, where the Association did not have election rules that complied with California's Davis Sterling Act.

NAMWOLF Super Lawyers

