

“our extensive experience of the legal industry helps us find innovative solutions.”

Samuel R. Nora

p 818.858.1120 d 818.858.0656
nora@nicolsonlawgroup.com

Mr. Nora’s practice focuses on catastrophic personal injury, general liability, premises liability, products liability, and real property matters. He has substantial experience spanning all stages of litigation and has represented individuals, small businesses, and Fortune 500 companies in such matters. Mr. Nora also has considerable experience in actions involving habitability, commercial transportation, assault and battery, breach of fiduciary duty, and business dispute claims.

Mr. Nora graduated from Pepperdine School of Law in 2012, prior to which he obtained a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from the University of Southern California in 2009. He is admitted to practice before all California state courts, as well as before the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

Relevant Experience

- Representation of commercial transportation carriers in catastrophic personal injury actions.
- Representation of individual insureds in automobile actions.
- Representation of Fortune 500 hotel owner in premises liability litigation.
- Representation of retailers and manufacturers in products liability cases.
- Representation of commercial property owners in complex business disputes and landlord-tenant matters.
- Representation of residential property owners and property management companies in premises liability and habitability litigation.

Representative Matters

- Obtained summary judgment in favor of property owner in assault and battery action in which Plaintiff contended a resident of the property constituted a dangerous condition.
- Obtained summary adjudication in favor of property owner in catastrophic personal injury matter resulting in Court’s determination that cross-defendant had retroactive duties to indemnify and defend owner.
- Obtained dismissal of product manufacturer from construction defect/products liability action following filing of motion for summary judgment.
- Obtained favorable settlement for manufacturer in complex products liability action following filing of a motion for summary judgment.

Membership

NAMWOLF (National Association of Minority and Women Owned Law Firms)

Admissions

California State Courts

United States District Court for the Central District of California

- Obtained dismissal of Fortune 500 company following Court's order granting motion to quash service of Plaintiff's Summons and Complaint for lack of personal jurisdiction.
- Obtained dismissal of entire action following Court's order granting motion for judgment on pleadings based upon finding of claim preclusion/res judicata; upheld on appeal.

NAMWOLF

